Dress Goods . . . Something "Special."

In the Dress Goods Department the fast-approaching season for summer stuffs makes the clearance of certain lines of dress materials a matter of imperative necessity; not that the goods can be considered in any way less desirable than they were a few days ago, but other merchandise, manufactured and bought for summer purposes, demands room. The newcomers always have the preference here, and Monday's offerings will therefore consist of a select number of the season's choicest dress materials, submitted to you at prices which in every instance mean a sharp reduction from quotations heretofore prevailing.

Marvels of Millinery.

If you ever had occasion to make comparisons between this Millinery Store and the best that exists outside of it, you are buying your millinery here. It would be very remarkable were it otherwise, for we are certainly embodying more style and more quality into our trimmed Hats—the respective prices considered—than any other millinery store in the country seems able or willing to.

The very latest things of Paris and New York are shown here first—then copied elsewhere—all but the prices. Why don't some one copy our prices? WE SELL AT PRESENT FOR

$6.00, $8.00 and $10.00
